

Dear Parent.

A very short update for you on our last newsletter.

We are about to undertake the outfitting of the classrooms for the year and it occurred to us that one way to make each room feel more musical and attractive would be to have some nice pictures to hang on our walls. To that end we are launching an art competition.

Open to every child in the school this competition has as its theme 'MUSIC' we are accepting submissions of any size and in any medium, crayon, paint, collage etc.

The good news is that there are prizes!!! We are going to make a selection of the entries and frame them for hanging in the music rooms but there will be four special awards. €50 for the first place winner €30 for the second place entry €25 for the third place entry and €20 for the fourth place entry.

All pictures must be presented to the office before Monday the 9th Dec at 4pm. Entries cannot be accepted after that time to be fair to all entrants. There is no limit on the number of pictures an individual can present so if some of our budding artists cannot decide on which magnum opus to enter then we will happily accept two or even three if they so wish.

Finally there was a small error in the previous newsletter regarding concerts. We have an amazing concert for everyone next Sat the 8th Dec in the sitting room downstairs. Elena Gekker on Piano, Robert Solyom on Clarinet and Pat Jones on French Horn. It will be a real treat for those that have not heard a horn played live as Pat is a really wonderful performer. The time of the concert originally advertised for 1pm is in fact taking place at 1.30pm. Attendance at this event will count as credit for those collecting points for the MCnG prize.
